

K I R T A N

DEVI 2000

Dates: Saturdays in 2008
February 23, March 29,
April 26, May 31, June 21, July 19,
August 30, September 27,
October 25, November 22

Time: 7:30 pm

Price: $10

Location: Moksha Riverwest
700 N Carpenter

Kirtan comes from the Sanskrit word for singing, and is as much a part of yoga as are stretching postures, meditation and breathing. It is a fusion of sounds, from the reflective drones of India to the upbeat lilt of reggae to electrifying melodies with a modern flair. Kirtan removes energy blocks, heals the spirit at deep levels, and allows for a heightened sense of awareness.

Devi 2000 is Chicago's premier kirtan group, central to a vibrant chanting scene with monthly performances at Moksha Yoga Center. Deep reverence, a sense of ritual, and ecstatic peaks of singing and dancing are the vibe at a Devi 2000 kirtan.

Band Members: Debi Buzil, Kenny Dread, Tom Sharpe, Steve Emmerman, Jacqueline, Rich Logan, Dylan Schwartz, Alexander Duvel, and a cast of many other beautiful singers and players.

Chant Mistress Devi B. also writes for Chicago's own Yoga Chicago Magazine, as the music editor. Mothering two young children is her own special sadhana...and making music her bliss.

Jai Ma!

Devotional is Devi 2000's offering to the yoga and kirtan community, and to all those who follow the path of bhakti yoga, the yoga of devotion.

Reaching out to the dance & chillout scene, Devi 2000 is thrilled to release Prepare Your Soul To Dance, a full-length CD of Devotional tracks remixed.

मोक़ेश
YOGA CENTER